IETA received legal non-profit status from the government of Switzerland in June 2000, and received United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change non-governmental organisation accreditation in October 2000.

IETA is a membership organisation where all members have one vote, used at the Annual General Meeting and any Extraordinary General meetings. Half of IETA's 18 Board members are elected each year.

IETA's articles and bylaws are accessible on the left of this page. IETA's competition policy and internal guidance for developing position papers are also available, for members only.
